

Peer Feedback Matrix Body Paragraphs

- Please fill in the matrix after reading/discussing your partner's work.
- 1 is excellent, 3 sufficient and 5 does not achieve the task
- Please add comments on each section below on the right hand side
- Please be constructive rather than critical

Example feedback comments

What interests me most about this introduction is.....

The area(s) that I think needs most work is/ are.....

Have you thought about looking at /thinking about.....?

My additional comments are.....

| Feature                |  | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | Comments (please give as much feedback as possible) |
|------------------------|--|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Topic Sentences        | TS introduces main idea/argument of the paragraph.   |   |   |   |   |   |   |
| Topic Sentences        | TS locates this idea/argument within the overall debate.   |   |   |   |   |   |   |
| Development            | The idea/argument is clearly explained in sufficient detail, using concrete examples/data.             |   |   |   |   |   |   |
| Development            | Evidence for the idea/argument is presented and evaluated.   |   |   |   |   |   |   |
| Sources                | Sources are referenced where necessary.  |   |   |   |   |   |   |
| Cautious language      | The writer avoids overgeneralisations and outright claims (e.g. opinions stated as 'fact')             |   |   |   |   |   |   |
| Register               | The language used is suitably formal.  |   |   |   |   |   |   |
| Coherence and cohesion | It is very easy to follow the writer's line of thinking.   |   |   |   |   |   |   |
| Accuracy               | There are no spelling, grammar or lexical mistakes.  |   |   |   |   |   |   |
| Interest               | The writer succeeds in engaging the reader and discussing the topic in an interesting & lively manner. |   |   |   |   |   |   |

Peer Feedback Matrix Body Paragraphs