

Peer Feedback Matrix Introduction & Outline

- Please fill in the matrix after reading/discussing your partner's work.
- 1 is excellent, 3 sufficient and 5 does not achieve the task
- Please add comments on each section below on the right hand side
- Please be constructive rather than critical

Example feedback comments

What interests me most about this introduction is.....

The area(s) that I think needs most work is/ are.....

Have you thought about looking at /thinking about.....?

My additional comments are.....

Feature		1	2	3	4	5	Comments (please give as much feedback as possible)
Proposed title	The title is clear, specific, focussed and interesting.
Thesis statement	Expresses the message of the essay and not the writer's intention. Indicates how the essay will proceed.
Structure	It is clear that this is a discursive text and what information/arguments will be discussed.
Purpose/ intention	It is clear what the writer wants to achieve and why.
Context/ background	There is sufficient background information to establish the importance of this topic
Attention/ interest	The writer has succeeded in making me interested enough to read further.
Cautious language	The writer avoids huge claims which they will not be able to keep
Register	The language used is suitably formal
Coherence and cohesion	It is very easy to follow the writer's line of thinking
Accuracy	There are no spelling, grammar or lexical mistakes						